FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Some Employers are Eager to Hire

(Sacramento) – Layoffs may be dominating the news, but some companies are eager to hire, and dozens of them will be looking for new employees at Sacramento's Diversity HIREvent. This timely job fair is Tuesday, February 24th from noon to 4pm at the Lions Gate Hotel Garden Pavilion, 5640 Dudley Boulevard in McClellan Business Park. Admission is free.

Jobseekers will find a wide variety of employment prospects with organizations looking to fill immediate openings in administration, customer service, education, finance, healthcare, marketing, management, and more. A special section devoted to Public Safety features jobs from law enforcement, security, and others working to keep the public safe.

Employment experts recommend job fairs as timely, cost-effective, and the only way to meet with many employers in just a few hours. They advise jobseekers to dress professionally, bring plenty of resumes, and arrive early enough to meet with every recruiter. Attendees can also have their resumes evaluated for free by a career expert.

The event is sponsored by KCRA 3 and KQCA My58. For more information on this and other HIREvents, visit JobJournal.com or call 1-800-THE JOBS.
